“ I've many fond memories of Aunt Margie, from the times when we all gathered during holidays and special occasions, to the last time I saw her over the Christmas holidays a couple of years ago. I remember as smiling almost always!

“ Mrs. Lang brought strength and comfort as she kept us safe as we grew. Forgiving our mistakes and keeping us on the correct path. She lived happily, proud of her family. She instilled in me some of my best parts by her guidance and example. She has a permanent place in my heart. Gary Whitlark

“ Mrs. Lang enjoyed reading. Her and I had a common liking with the author James Patterson. We swapped and shared books. She also swapped the gossip papers with my Mother, Eleanor. We will miss our visits we had when we met to make the swaps. May God Be With You and Your Family. Linda Whiteaker

“ Marge was a great friend, mother and grandmother. I enjoyed the time I spent with her on our bowling team. She would always tell me, "right down the middle!" She was always there to pick and drop off the boys for their soccer practices and games when they were younger. You'll be missed!
