“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ I would like to thank everyone for their messages. The obituary was posted by the Funeral home as requested and created out of love for everyone. I would also like clarify that Derek and I are Step-children (legal title) to Marjorie. I am not posting this to lessen the love I share, but to clarify to those that are not clearly aware of the relationship.

“ Michele, Your loss is great and your greif is unending. Just remember our loved ones are no further away than our memories. Cherish the newly found family and take comfort from knowing there is no more suffering for Marjorie. In Gods Love I send my prayers, Janice

“ To the Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy. Though no words can help relieve your sorrow, know that she is comforted by God and by those that went before her and that death is only the beginning of something more grand. "My mission - to make God loved - will begin after my death." "I will spend my heaven doing good on earth. I will let fall a shower of roses." St Therese, "the little flower"

“ I have a whole in my heart & undescrivable pain! You see, Marjorie was my mother. I am the baby girl. My mom was one of the sweetest people you could ever meet. She had a huge heart. She loved her husband, Jay, children, grandchildren & friends. We (her children) thank everyone who was a part of our mothers' life so very much. She felt very loved and was loved by so many! We will miss her. Our lives have forever changed. My mother is at peace now & thanks to my father she lived a good life. Jay made my mother feel loved as she never felt before (he spoiled her too). Thanks Jay for loving my mother. We are so grateful you took such great care of and for our mother. Your Baby Girl, Kathryn Joshua

“ It's so hard to say goodbye to the loving and devoted in our lives. They say out of everything bad or sad comes something good. I have awesome Sisters and Brothers who are kind and loving. My only regret is not having them in my life sooner, but now I can clearly see how fulfilling my life will be.
