“ *Bud, at church on Sunday the pastor said, "Death is not a period in life, it's a comma with the best yet to come." I instantly thought of you and know that is very true. I love and miss you.

“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of our WB, My prayers go out to his family, friends and Masonic Brothers. Our fraternity is a host of closely bound brothers that can not be explained in terms to people who have not experienced the handshake of a brother. I will attempt to get to the memorial.

“ Bud, we started out in 1960, just as neighbors, when I was 10. Kathy & you treated me like your daughter. You guys were so much fun. I miss those days. Now you're with Kathy, along with my parents, Betty & Bill. You're not alone Bud, "You've just gone fishing with Bill". What a wonderful man!! I love you Bud and will miss you dearly, Carolyn
