“ Joe, Barbara, Ken, Darren and Maryann...

I would like to express my Deepest Sympathy to all of you. Many years have passed since we lived across the street from each other on Globe. One thing is for sure...there was never a dull moment on Globe Street. It seems like yesterday that Kenny, Mark, and Darren and some of us other neighborhood kids were flying kites, or playing baseball in the field behind your house. Mark will surely be missed, but will ALWAYS be kept in our hearts forever. His memories will continue to live on within us all. I was very sad to learn of his passing. Please take comfort in knowing that others care. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers. I know that the Lord will give you strength and comfort to help all of you during this time of loss. I wish that I could do something to take away your hurt. "To be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord". May the Lord be with you always.

“ Hi, I did not know the person who has passed personally, but I wanted to offer my condolences and share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible, that will help you to cope with your loss. One thing that helps me to deal, is what is being brought out in Ecclesiastes 9:5, and John 11:11. Those scriptures bring out how those who have died are not conscious of anything and are at rest sleeping. They are no longer going through any pain, they have no more thoughts (negative or positive) and are just at rest peacefully. Some people grieve because they wish they could tell the person that has passed one last thing, or hold them one last time. The Bible tells us at John 5:28,29 "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in memorial tombs (dead ones) will hear my voice and will come out: .Isn't this a time to look forward to? A time when our heavenly Father, through his son Jesus Christ, will bring back our dead loved ones, and we will be able to see and hold them again. I am sorry about your loss. It's normal to go through a grieving process, and make sure you take time to do so. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers, Take Care
