“ Mark, You have been my great example, My guiding light and often true compass in life and in duty at work. I shall miss you greatly but I will never forget you or what you have taught me by word and deed. In Good times, and bad times you were a Rock of Strength. Now, my dear friend, rest in the arms of our ever present Lord and God. I will again see you some day. Love, JoJo

“ I came by this obituary by accident this afternoon, and my jaw dropped when i seen Mark's obituary in it. Even though i haven't seen Mark in many years i often thought of him often, Mark was a great guy and a man i knew from my youth, he was our skating coach at skateland west in westland back in teh middle 80's. How time flys and people leave us and we wish we had just one more visit with them and to express to them how they touched our lives, well i did'nt realize that last visit many years ago with Mark was my to be my last and i never got to say thanks for helping us kids and showing us how to have fun and still be competitive. Mark I hope you rest in peace and i hope your family finds comfort in knowing you were one cool dude. Thanks for being a great coach

“ Dear Mrs. Parascandalo & Family, Please accept my sincere sympathy at the loss of your husband. During this time of deep sadness and grief it is my prayer that you find the comfort and strength you need to endure from our heavenly "Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort" and that in time he will heal the sadness of your hearts. Please take care.(2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Psalm 147:3)

“To my cousins: I was shocked to hear of Mark's death. You do not think of losing a cousin on a warm summer's day. Know you are in my thoughts over the next few days as you lay Mark to his final rest.
