“ I grew up next door to mark. Him and his wife Carol both were great people great human beings. Growing up next door I have a million great memories. Mark was more or less the neighborhood dad. You name the sport he played it with his own children and every kid in the neighborhood. I learned many life lessons from Mark. My personal relationship with both will forever be cherished. Mark was a great husband, father, grand father, relative, friend and mentor to many people.

If you grew up with Mark especially one of the neighborhood kids then you know this saying all too well, You imbecile... 🤔

Mark was one heck of a good man.

I'll be missing yah Mark. Thank you for a million great memories. May you and Carol forever be joined in heaven.

“ Mark was my cousin. My memories are when we were young, he and his mom, dad and brothers would make the trip up north to the U.P. to visit our family or we'd go to Charlevoix for a visit when they traveled up to the 'farm'. Of course, it was my brother, Ben and he that would spend their time together (who wants a kid sister hanging around?). To see his picture and that beautiful smile...well, I am honored and proud to be his cousin.

*Our sympathies to his family and friends,
Serena(cousin) and Jim Forgrave*

“ It is with a heavy heart that I say farewell to my friend Mark. We were co-workers at Ford Motor Co, where we met. Mark was a great co-worker, a competitive bowler, as we bowled for many years together not only on a men’s league but with our wives on a Saturday evening league. So much fun. Mark also enjoyed playing cards and a great partner during the down time at Fords. We shared many common interests. He was my friend and I will truly miss my buddy. May God be with you Mark.

To the Plave family, May God watch over you during this time of sorrow. We enjoyed family time and I am forever greatfull for so many happy times and memories.

May God Be With You TIL We Meet Again
