“ Marlene and her husband Bill were our wonderful neighbors at our cabin near Rudyard. We so hated to see her move way after Bill passed away. Our condolences to all the families for their loss. Ray and Sharon Howard and families

“ Through my genealogy research and trying to connect some dots, I reached out to Marlene a couple of years ago to confirm if she is the daughter of Alice Zeilman and she did. Marlene's mother, Alice, is my Great Grandpa Zeilman's little niece. Our families lost touch after his accidental death in 1928. I was happy to touch base and meet some of the family through Facebook. I'm sorry that Marlene and I did not have the opportunity to meet in person, however. From our conversations, she seemed to be a very warm and nice lady. My condolences to the family.

“ I'm so grateful for the fact that I and everyone else had the chance to meet her and have all the memories we have. It's a wonder to me what we will all do without her but I know that she would want us to be celebrating her life and the greatest joys she brought to us. You will be greatly missed, I hope you know how much we loved you.

“ A genuine caring lady, who shot from the hip. Very grateful for her long life, as my children (her great-grandchildren) were able to know her for longer.

“ She was my Mom and lived here at my house with the girls after my Dad died. I held her hand all night long the morning she died. I couldn't bare the thought of her dying alone . I will really miss her.

“ I will deeply miss Gram. I had many great memories with her. My cousin's & I caught frogs in the frog pond & got sprayed down at least twice a day. We had many snow mobile adventures & she taught us to play cards. I am thankful for all of the love & care she gave to our family when they needed it the most. I love you Gram.

“ Gram was the most generous person I've ever met. She took care of cassie and I for 10 years without hesitation. She was so selfless. I will forever miss seeing her face every day... I wish I could warm up a cup of coffee for her one last time and see her face light up while I deliver it into her bedroom, haha. I even miss the little things💕💕

“ Marlene! What a great lady! She took in a few of her grandchildren and worked with them academically and socially! She did a fantastic job, but always gave ME credit! She would never take credit for herself. Selfless and kind and full of piss and vinegar! Prayers for the whole family! Reach out if anyone needs anything! ❤️❤️
