“ My deepest sympathy to the Winkelmann Family. Marlene will surely be missed... I'd like to share what helps me to cope and to really rely upon Jehovah God the God of all comfort. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies, and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God. May you have peace in knowing that Jehovah God, and his only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ feels for you, and will some day bring back your loved one Marlene back to you under the best of conditons on a paradise earth- (Psalms 37:10,11,29) To know more about this marvelous hope, go to our official website at www.jw.org

“ I'm so sorry to hear the bad news.I will always remember all the good times we had together growing up as neighbors. I think Aunt Marlene fed me as much as her own children. She was a wonderful and caring person. She will be missed dearly. Love, Ron

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Marlene's passing. She was a dear friend....we went to grade school and high school together, and lived a few doors from each other on Wagner St. in Detroit. A very lovely lady.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Marlene's death. I worked with her in the recent years at Comercia Bank. We also exchanged E Mails after she left. She was a lovely lady whom we all enjoyed working with. May she rest in peace and be reunited with her husband. Thoughts & prayers go out to all her family.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Marlene will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Marlene again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Marlene seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Grandma - From the stories I hear about Dad growing up he was nothing but trouble - but thanks to the wonderful job you did - you have blessed me with the most kind hearted, patient, loving father anyone could ever ask for. Glad you can be with Grandpa again - love you! May you rest peacefully.
