“ Martha, Martha, Martha, in the Parable of Mary & Martha, Martha was busy getting everything done, that was our Martha too but she was also Mary listening to all of us and our concerns! Foremost she was a Lady, impeccably dressed and always nicely coiffed. Her generosity went unnoticed, such a Kind, Giving Soul! A few of my fond memories was making Christmas cookies with a few first cousins, Martha at the helm directing, under her tutelage I became a confident baker. Baking is a Science, she said it is better to have an under done cookie! Furthermore, when Pope John Paul came to Michigan, she came to the restaurant I worked at Delphine's at the Airport Hilton with a few priests! Moreover, I just had went to nights because of my seniority which some wasn't happy! So, I proceeded to give the group a complimentary dessert on the house! Oops, I didn't get it approved, the girl who wanted my job, said you better not be giving that away! I said I'm not I am buying it! So, the tip they left me paid for the dessert! When I was clearing the table under cousin Martha's cup was $20.!! Furthermore, cousin June and Martha came to visit me when I moved to Georgia, I just mentioned I missed Sanders with the cream puff hot fudge sundae! Unbeknownst to me she sent June to get ice cream and hot fudge while she was in the kitchen making the cream puff!! Martha, Martha, Martha, we sure going to miss you! God Bless to all her children, grandchildren and great grands, Brother and Sisters! Love: heart: Y'all

“ Aunt Martha was a second mother to me. Whenever I visited her, I was at peace. Her home was a substitute for the one I grew up in. I long to have the same comforting home as Aunt Martha’s. She was the role model I needed. she was always encouraging when I needed encouragement. I will forever remember our golf outings at Hawthorne, her voice and her laughter. God has her now and so does Uncle Art. Until I see you again...

“ Dear Family I am So very Sorry for the loss of Our beloved Martha, Sister, Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother. Even though it was expected it really doesn't make it any easier. Our Family has loss its most intregal part ... Our "Queen" Mother! I am heartbroken broken 💔 being so far from home and so far away from all of you at such a sorrowful time!

I hope that everyone finds some small degree of comfort in knowing that Martha finally had her wishes fulfilled as it was no secret to any of us that knew and loved her that she has been saying for quite some time that she was tired and wanted to go and in her heart she was Ready ... but somewhat selfishly we weren't and likely Never would have been Ready to let her go! I Love You all so very much and wish I was there to help in some way! I am so very lucky to have you all ( Linda, David, Denise, Nanette & Cletus) in my life and beyond proud and grateful for the extraordinary job you all did taking care of your Mom, not just over the past few months but over the last couple of years.

I especially commend You Nan, Linda & Larry as your Love & devotion to your Mom & all of her daily needs was evident and unwavering! What a beautiful way of honoring your Mother! Sending All My Love & Virtual (( HUGS )) to All!

RIParadise ... my Beautiful & Most Beloved Sister Martha, you are so deserving of it!

You will be Forever Missed and never forgotten! For you my dearest sister, you will live on, carried within each of us, safely tucked away in that special niche in the corner of each and every one of our hearts! 💕💕

Love Always; Liz & Sam
