“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Mary will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Mary again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Mary seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ I was Mary's next door nieghbor for a little over 16 years. The flowers Mary grew, and all of the wonderful baking that she did definied who Mary was. I would shovel her snow in the winter and she would delight me with all kinds of baked goods. Although I asked to help her mow her lawn, she took much pleasure in doing that chor herself, twice a week. Mary will be missed. Even though I moved away, we would still send cards and letters to each other. Mary loved the Lord, and I believe she is conversing and baking for Him now,,, “ Mary was our neighbor for some 25 years. To say the least she was an amazing woman. I will always remember her phone calls, meet me at the fence meant she was baking. She made an amazing apple turnover and perogies that were indescribably delicious. If I am so fortunate to be half as active as she was for so long I will consider myself lucky. She will be missed very much.
