“ Mardi was indeed a special child of God! I remember calling her and leaving a message asking what her favorite verse was. The next Sunday I found her, introduced myself and the first words were Proverbs 3:5,6! Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

While we rejoice that she is with her Heavenly Father, we pray for peace and comfort for the family!

“Mardi is a woman of God to her family and friends and now is in His presence. She is loved by her family and we her friends...her love expressed in compassion, kindness, patience, forbearance, gentleness, graciousness, longsuffering and forgiveness. She displayed Christ-likeness in spirit, attitude, actions and words. To so many of us, Mardi is an example of what godliness looks like. She not only was a student and teacher of the Word, but a woman who exuded the Word through her life. Her prayerfulness for her family [and I remember her words that her family would find she and Frank on their knees praying for their children at night]; her prayerfulness for her church family; her prayerfulness for our missionaries...and simply a prayer warrior rooted in the Scriptures that deepened her worship and intercession.

Mardi has a legacy of faithfulness and consistency...maintaining her spiritual centeredness in each stage of her life and even as she lost her eyesight and hearing. She had an enduring spirit and testimony of the difference that Jesus makes in our lives over a lifetime.

We loved her handshakes and her hugs, her laughter, her delight in us and those who knew her, her joy in the Lord and her continuous learning and teachable spirit. We were grateful for her encouragement and support in our years of ministry at Calvary. In this age of mobility, she was a constant in our lives...always present until health hindered her presence at church. The touch of her life cannot be counted but in heaven...lives touched in person, lives touched in prayer, lives touched by her teaching, lives touched by the witness of her life...an example to us of a life well-lived and who has received the “Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of your Lord.”

There is sadness in her passing as her presence is no longer with us...but real joy for her being in the presence of Jesus, Frank, her family and friends who have passed before her. She leaves a legacy to her family and to each of us that will bring both a smile and appreciation when we think of her. Her love for her family and for us is a lasting legacy to us all.

We will pray with a thankful spirit for our memories of Mardi and thankful spirit for you, her family. We will be praying God's comfort, grace, peace and wisdom for all of you, that you all will know God's closeness to you and that your bond as a family will be strengthened.

We miss being with you at this time but you all are in our thoughts and prayers.

Our love,

*John and Donna
