“ I have the fondest memories of Mary Ann and Arthur when I was chaplain at Henry Ford Hospital in the late '80's. Both were inseparable. Both were proud of their Irish heritage. They were the most gracious and charitable couple. Mary doted on Arthur. When I visited their home on Ferry St. and smelled bleach, I knew that Arthur was mopping the kitchen. Mary always offered a cup of Irish tea after communion. I was sometimes embarrassed when Arthur would come up to the altar at the hospital and say in a rather loud voice, "Here's ten dollars for a Mass, Father." A wonderful, generous couple. I am sorry that I will not be able to be at the funeral because of a previous engagement. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
