“ I'll always remember growing up Aunt Joanne was my barber. She'd cut my hair all the time, even though she knew sooner or later in the process she was going to cut her finger. She was such a a sweet lady.

“ My memories of Joanne run deep.i worshipped with her at my home Church, New Hope Baptist. I remember her as the little sister of Myrna. Paul I will never forget your wedding day. As Joanne started down the aisle you couldn't wait for her to get to the wedding altar, with tears in your eyes you met her halfway . Lori,I am so so sorry . May You find comfort from your precious memories and God's perfect peace. Myrna,I will never forget you and Joanne singing Jesus, Jesus there is just something about his Name. Sending you all Prayers and Love, Pat Atkins

“ How to even put into words what my extra Mama meant is hard. The beautiful woman she was, her constant smile, her unwavering faith. The void of her being gone is immeasurable. I will miss her tiny sweet voice calling me JoeyAnne and how she lovingly referred to all of my kids as “precious”. She loved with all she had and gave to anyone who needed her. Selfless was her way. Rest easy with the Lord I know he wrapped his arms hard around you sweet Mama Joanne.
