“ The Bible makes the promise: “Your dead ones Yes, Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. Jesus Christ himself said: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15. I encourage you to go to the website: www.JW.org With further questions . Respectfully, M. Franklin ,

“ Bill and Kate: I am so very sorry for your loss. She was a wonderful, fun loving person, who gave so much to those who had the good fortune to call her a friend. I'll miss stitching with her.

“ Dear Mary Lou, It is with a heavy heart I write this. I will miss your friendship (on the golf course and off), your generosity, your upbeat love of life, your quick wit that always made me laugh, our "talks" and that we share a commonality in needlework, our fun luncheons and dinners, and the list goes on. Your valiant and courageous fight to the end was inspirational to all of us. I know that you are now at peace and that helps to soothe the sorrow, but you will be greatly missed. Thank you for letting me be your friend.

“ I met Mary Lou on Susan's Italy trip when I knew no one. Mary Lou took me under her wing and made me feel welcome and part of the group. I looked forward after that to other trips because I knew I would meet up with Mary Lou again and have a wonderful time. I will cherish my memories of our trips together, the fun and the laughs and the stitching. She will be in my thoughts and in my prayers and I will miss her very much

“ I, too, had the pleasure of getting to know Mary Lou through Still Stitching Susan's stitching events and had the pleasure of sharing in a trip to Williamsburg with her. She certainly had a gift for livening up one's day; she was just flat out fun to be around. I'll miss her so.

“ I'll always remember Mary Lou as our crazy, fun loving CEO of Susan's Northern classes. She made us laugh. We were on the Italy trip together which brings back many great memories. I just know she's teaching the angels how to stitch now with threads of silver and gold. Love you Mary Lou.

“ Mary Lou was a special light in my life. She came to me through our love of needlework. I cannot tell you how big the hole is in my heart...but will keep stitching it closed with beautiful memories we made together. You are free to spread your butterfly wings and join the angels, ML. Still Stitching, Susan
