“ I am so sorry to hear of Mrs. Johnson's passing and I would like to share a few wonderful memories that I have of her. First of all she was such a beautiful woman and always dressed to the nines. When she came to my dad's funeral a few years ago, I couldn't believe how stunning she still was as she held my hand and hugged me. She was truly a great comfort to our family during that difficult time.

Looking back, I remember how her house always smelled so good with her southern cooking, and how she introduced me to such southern delights as hushpuppies and Mississippi Mud Pie! Her home was decorated perfectly and always so spotless!

She was also known on Brandywyne for her immense creativity. Marcy always had the most incredible homemade Halloween costumes (while everyone else got theirs from K-mart) and birthday cakes made with love by her mother. Mrs. Johnson didn't need Pinterest or Instagram, she WAS our 1970's version of an influencer.

Lastly, Mrs. Johnson was a woman of great faith--that is what I remember most about her. I know that right now she is right where she belongs--in the arms of God.

Mr. Johnson, Craig, Marcy and all of the grandchildren--please know that I am praying for your peace and I am thinking about you. I will never forget Mary Jo Johnson.

“ I remember when I first saw Mary Jo. She was one of the most classy looking ladies I'd seen. After getting to know her, I learned that along with being a classy dresser, she was super sweet, smart, very friendly and is so funny.
We grew to love her and Don and she will leave a void but we're thankful we'll see her again in heaven!
Our prayers for our heavenly Father to give Don & his family the comfort that only He can.
