“Mary and Jim were surrogate parents of a sort to me when I was a teenager and young adult. They provided the kind of nurturing home life to their children that I could only fantasize about. I still have one picture of Mary making her 2 kids - and me - Christmas morning breakfast when I was about 18. I won't share it because it isn't the most flattering pictures of her, but it is a cherished memory for me. RIP, Mrs. Kelly. 😭
