“ I had the pleasure of working with Mary at John Glenn High School. She enjoyed the students and the students loved her (well, most of them did!). She provided a “motherly” touch in the building and was good at keeping things orderly and in control. Mary was a great addition to have at a big suburban high school!

“ Karen, Kevin, and Craig;
Our deepest condolences to each of you, and your families, at this sad time. Your mother was so outgoing, and willing to give of her time in an attempt to keep us on the straight and narrow in the days of our youth. I particularly recall her teaching our 6th Grade catechism class, under the duress of our careless, punk attitudes. It appeared to only make her more determined!
In the next several days as you celebrate her life, reflect on the blessings of having her presence, and influence in your lives well into your adult years.

“ Almost 5 years since I first saw Mary at Marycrest Manor, she always called me "Alex" which is not my name, but she never changed "Alex", I always remembered her birthday because she was born 16 days before my mom, I always came to her room, or the dining room, just to say hi and ask her about my name "hoping she remembered my real name", but it was always "Alex".
Well, "Alex" is going to miss Mary, a lot. "Alex" is going to miss the connection and comfort whenever we talked. Love you Mary and I will miss you.

“ Can't imagine where to begin. Only a loving God could have chosen our new neighbor when we moved onto Fairchild in 1966. Mary and Clyde quickly adopted our family and from then on we were blessed to be part of their family. So many incredible times, from Apple picking, Memorial Day parties, graduations and weddings. We know Clyde is happy to have Mary close by again for eternity.

“ I am so sorry sorry to hear of the of the loss of your mother. She was always a delight to be with. She could always make me laugh. I treasure that. I remember the reunion in 1999, she entered the room with a zest for life and kept the conversation flowing. Always had something to say. She will be missed. All my love and prayers to the family.
