“ Mary used to work at the high school and that is how I got to know her. She was a wonderful lady and I am sorry to hear that she has passed on. My prayers are with the family. God bless you all!

“ To the McQuade Family: I am so sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is never easy in fact it is very tough. The bible holds out a hope where we can see our dead loved one again in perfect health. A scripture that is very comforting is at Revelation 21:3,4. Again I am so sorry and my prayers are with you

“ Mary was one of my best friends. She was always there for me no matter how busy she was. We had so much fun with our card club. They did not put us together because we loved to talk. Mary was like a sister. We had so many fun times in Toronto, Shakesphere Festival, Fasching with the German Club, MACLD and many other times too numerous to mention. Mary was a wonderful cook and always brought delicious things to my parties. Mary loved her family and was always there for them. She loved people and no one was a stranger to her. She always wanted to help everyone. Mary would give the shirt off her back. She was with me in good times and bad. Mary never let me down. She was one of my closest friends. Mary loved the Lord. She is in Heaven with Ginny and Arlene who were in our card club. They are having a good time with Jesus and praying for us. Mary always helped me with my annual Christmas letter by changing it to one tense. We ushered together at the Fox and Fisher theater. Mary loved my family as she was part of it. I think of Mary quite often. Mary exercised at the cultural center. We shared all the time about school, people we knew and our family. A piece of my life will be missing because Mary isn't there. Karen and Jack took good care of Mary along with her grandchildren. She loved being with them. Mary I will miss you and will always love you.

“ I am sorry for your loss. One thing that helps me to cope with losing a loved one in death is the scripture at John 5:28, 29. It states, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life,,," Soon you will be able to see Mary again because Jehovah God our creator promises to resurrect those sleeping in death. I hope that you gain comfort from Gods promise.
