“ I first met Mary in the fall of 1968 when we had both been promoted at Social Security and training was in Grand Rapids. Because we were the only two from the Detroit area we started driving together after the first week. I would pick her up in my '68 GTO and we flew across the State. (Mary was living in Detroit and I was living in Dearborn on Chase Rd near Warren.) She was a sweetheart. Eventually we both ended up working at the Inkster office and I will always remember her inviting everyone over for a wonderful Polish dinner when she retired rather than having a retirement party. Your Mom was definitely something special. Back then my name was Chris Abela.
