“ The Broken Chain Submitted by: litlebakergirl Author: Ron Tranmer We little knew that day, God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death, we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone. For part of us went with you, The day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories, Your love is still our guide. And although we cannot see you, You are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again. mother this poem says it all love you and miss you very very much

“ My sincere condolences. Hopefully, this is the Bob Osterman that Remi and myself went to school with and were very good friends. If so, I would love to hear from Bob and catch up on life. Again, I am so sorry for your loss. Marie

“ So sorry to hear of your mother's passing. Although we've never met, I think Mary might be my aunt. My mother, born Jean P. Ostermann, daughter of Ella J. and George H., had 3 brothers: Robert T., Ralph W. and Donald H. If that matches your family, we would be cousins. I've never known why we didn't know our uncles or their families, but my condolences are with you. chrisjarrell47@gmail.com

“ Our deepest condolences to Mary's family, during this time of grief. Although our name may not register with the family, It was my father who was Bob's boss while he served so faithfully at Hollywood Cartage. Robert T. was also my football coach during the 1950's at St. Joseph High School. Its strange how God gives us this nudge from time to time to check the Remembrance section of the paper. With Mary's birth into a new life, we can always remember her time with us. God Bless You Mary, for your love and devotion to Christ and His teachings. You have well earned your eternal happiness. Jim & Jennie Sute (734)-675-3040 We would like to send you some picutes of your father and mother at some of the Hollywood Cartage dinners from the late 40's if you would like them. Please get in touch.

“ My dear Mary, you have no idea how much I shall miss you. I remember when you stood up with me for my confirmation, and all the wonderful pool and holiday parties when all the family was together. And now you are reunited with them all, and with our Lord. I shall miss you all the days of my life and I truly love you, my dear queen bee! xxoo. See you when I get there but until that time, please give everyone a big kiss and hug for me. Love always, your neice, Lori. I love you.
