“ Johnny, Jimmy, & Shirlene,
I know I don't need to tell you how missed Aunt Maimee will be. Memories I recall as a child often include your family. Sitting in the closet in their room, rehearsing skits, just so I could stay the night. Pilfering the dumpsters, Don't forget my "pilfer skirt"!, Camping, sitting in the kitchen watching the birds, tang in every flavor it was offered in, and dearest to my heart your homes open door policy. No matter the time of day everyone was welcomed. If not for Aunt Maimee and you, Shirlene, in my time of darkness, I don't know where I would be today. You were there for my girls when I couldn't be and got me through many difficult nights when everything seemed to be closing in on me. Aunt Maimee was the light I could not see, but reminded me it was there, she was my strength when I could not stand, she was the words of encouragement when I could not here, she was the arms of Love when I had none to wrap around me. I can stand strong now because of her, and know that her arms of love will continue to wrap around me only now through my heart. May she be at peace with Uncle John
Forever they will be missed
