“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Mary will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Mary again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Dear family of Mrs. Stone, I am truly saddened by your great loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. My greatest source of comfort has been from God's word the Bible. No matter how many years we have lived we are never ready to die, or say goodbye to someone we love so dearly. This is because God created us to live forever. His word the Bible promises: The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Just imagine how wonderful life will be when we are reunited with our loved one right here on a paradise earth.-Psalms 37:10,11,29

“ Sandy and Al, Our sincere condolences to you and your family on the death of your mother. The time we spent with all three of you in Georgia was a very nice experience for us. Mary Catherine was the star of the show that week. Delightful, adventurous and charming are just a few words to describe her. A fine "Kentucky" woman! She was lucky to have such a loving and devoted family.
