“ To Mary's Family, I want you to know how much Mary meant to so many at the Museum of the Shenandoah Valley. We watched her as she and Paul came to the MSV every day and did an absolutely fantastic job of organizing us. Then we watched her every day as she arranged and supported Paul's care throughout his illness. All the while she was also totally present, with us and for us, supporting our work in wonderful ways. She was remarkable in her quiet and competent way. I learned alot from Mary and will miss her very much. All best to her family.

“Denise, Pat and Michael, The passing of your mother, Mary, is very sad. Ed and I will miss her terribly. In January 1986 we moved into our new home in Mount Woodley Place. A few months later Paul and Mary moved into their home. Across the back decks of our homes, the four of us became friends. We spent many week-end evenings at first one deck and then the other enjoying the end of the work week. Many “world problems” were solved over a glass of wine. Over the years we were always close friends: taking trips together, going to concerts, visiting museums. Paul and Mary took every advantage of the wonderful sights in the Washington DC area. They volunteered at several historical sites, such as Gadsby’s Tavern and Sully’s Plantation. They were involved in their community and they enjoyed sharing it with their family and friends. They were very creative and would always have a “project” to do or a class to learn how to do various projects. They were generous to a fault. I remember the photo album Paul made for Michael as a wedding gift. I thought that was such a special gift. After I passed the CPA exam, Mary did a beautiful cross-stitch of the CPA postage stamp and framed it for me. I treasure that gift. When they retired and moved to Winchester, we visited back and forth for weekends. They were always the most gracious hosts. In Winchester they continued their love of community, especially historical areas. They always had some place different they wanted to share when we visited. After we retired and moved back to North Carolina, we didn’t see them as often; but always they were our friends. We loved your dad and your mom dearly and will miss them so much. They were always proud of each of you. Each one of you was very special to them. As I look back at what I have written, it is amazing how their lives were so intertwined—to the point it’s hard to talk about one without the other. We know that Mary missed Paul and their life together for the last years. We are sure they are together having lively discussions on everything from growing tomatoes in the garden to politics. We will always remember them with love. Ed and Erdeen

“ So sorry to hear of Mary's passing. I met Mary & Paul when I worked as the Chaplain at the Winchester Rehab Center, and furthered our friendship at Sacred Heart. I used to bring communion to Paul when he was hospitalized and often saw Mary & Paul at the early weekday Mass at Sacred Heart. Both Mary & Paul were always gracious & engaging and I, too, enjoyed conversing with Mary during her hours at the Museum. Know that your family will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My condolences to Mary's family. I became acquainted with Mary and her husband Paul after they moved to Winchester and began to participate in the hiking programs offered by the local Parks & Recreation Departments. I was often with them in the lead groups of these daytime outings on the Appalachian Trail, C&O Canal Towpath, and other venues in the parks Virginia, West Virginia, and Maryland. I especially remember a particular nine-mile hike along the Canal looking for a landmark that we never found. In later years, whenever I visited the Museum of the Shenandoah Valley, Mary was usually the greeter at the front desk. She was always a cheerful person.

“ Thank you, Mary, for being a remarkable friend and co-worker! I had a glass of wine (the last gift you gave me) in your honor and memory the day you went to our Lord and your Paul. God blessed me with your presence in my life. Much love, Joan
