“ My condolences go out to the entire Vockler family on your tremendous loss. I had the pleasure of meeting "Mrs. V." through her son, Jay, while growing up in the Warrendale community of Detroit. She was a wonderful, extremely "giving" individual who constantly put the interests and needs of others ahead of her own. She treated everyone with dignity and respect and welcomed all of us who came into her home as "family". Her countless hours of volunteer work at the Veterans' Hospital adequately define the wonderful woman that she was as well as her life's priorities. The world could definitely use more individuals like her. May you rest in peace, Mrs. V.. You are going to be missed by many.
