“ Death has been the hardest thing to understand because it comes to anyone. It comes when we are not expecting it. I want you to know that in any situation we may be, God Jehovah does not ignore. but it is comforting to know that God says at Psalms 65:5 that he become the father (mother) of the fatherless (motherless) and at Psalms 147: 3 that he is healing the broken hearted ones and binding their painful sport. Yes we will get to see our dead loved ones in the very near future when they come back to life.

“ Dear Tim, Pat & family, So sorry to hear about your mother. We could not be there to support you but you sure were in our thoughts & prayers. It is never easy to lose your mother. Take care and God bless you.

“ Tim & Family Our thoughts and prayers to you, your family and Mother. I remember our childhood days Tim and what a spirited, smiling, upbeat person your Mom was. She was a leader in the family floral business. I remember how she kept tabs on you and how you "reported in" after school. Then we'd walk over to your house and there would be a snack waiting for you (us). She was a great model of a working woman with love for what she did everyday and for her family. That's how I remember her and those wonderful days, years ago.

“ Dear Wright family, Sorry to read about the passing of Mary. The floral arrangements she made were no doubt as beautiful as her personality. This is not the end of her work, the bible holds out a hope of seeing her again at Rev. 21:3,4.

“ Dear Wright family, Please accept my family's sincere condolences. I have many fond memories of going to the house on Glastonbury for holidays. Aunt Janie and Uncle Harold always managed to dig out some of Bob and Tim's old toys to keep my brothers and I entertained. I will miss her.
