“ My dear, sweet Aunt Tillie, you will be greatly missed! I always admired my Aunt Tillie, for being a single mother of two sons, having a successful career, working full time, keeping up a household, while raising her children in the 60's - it was truly amazing!

In later years, she was a wild driver on her powered wheelchair! It was surprising how well she could maneuver it! When we went shopping together, she knew where she was going, what she wanted and drove her chair through that mall with purpose! It is a fun, happy memory that I will never forget!

I loved her, I will miss her and will always cherish the wonderful memories of times we shared.

Gods blessings to her, Bob, Larry & their families!

*With Love,
Beverly*
