“ Matt, We at Suburban CDJR of Farmington Hills will miss you immensely. You were an intricate part of this work family. Our sincere condolences to your friends and family. We really leaned on you to be the rock star you were every day for all the Techs in the Shop. Your kindness and great energy were a big part of our success! There are no words that can really do justice to someone's life here on earth, but we will forever be grateful for you being in ours!!! Your work Family..
