“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Matthew will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Matthew again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Matthew seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ To the Johnson Family: My deepest sympathy goes out to you all. I worked with Matt 11 years ago at Follmer. While I may have lost touch with Matt over the years, I did think about him often. He was a very good man, funny, kind and caring. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen. May his souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

“ Dear Jackie, Eric, Shireen, Leanne, and Emma, Lanny called to tell me of Matthew's passing, and we want you to know that our prayers are with you. We mourn with you as our children are ever so special. God's plans are beyond our understanding, and our only hope is in our faith and the consolation that our faith will give us strength in these days of sadness. In his time with you all, I know you were proud of him and enjoyed his care and understanding. Think with joy on the love you all shared. God be with you, Cousin Lynn and Audrey Laskowsky

“ I am so sorry for your sudden loss. I knew Matt during his high school years with him and my son, Trent, being in wrestling together. He was always so polite, kind and he always had a smile whenever I seen him. My heart goes out to his whole family. If there is anything I can do, please feel free to ask. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My dear friend Shireen, Leanne and Emma and the Johnson and Sahawneh families, I knew Matt only a little, as the man who first wooed and then married one of my dearest and oldest friends. Over the years, distance meant that we did not see each other enough or stay current in each others' lives but I always felt that Matt was a loving husband and father who cared deeply about his family and wanted to build a safe and prosperous future for them. It is a great tragedy for his family and friends that he has died so young but I hope you will be consoled by the fact that he lived his life well and was a genuinely good person who touched many people all over the world during his short time on earth. with love and heartfelt sympathy, Nasreen

“ Shireen, I never had the pleasure of meeting Matt in person. However, I know what a wonderful husband and father he was because of how you spoke of him. There are no words I can say now that will give you comfort. Just know that I am praying for you and the girls and will keep you close in my heart.

“ We met Matt, Shireen and their beautiful and bright girls in Mexico a couple weeks ago. We shared so many wonderful memories that week and it was so easy to see how fundamentally decent and kind Matt was. Though his time on this earth was way too short, his legacy is long, and Leann and Emma are proof of that. Shireen, you and the girls are in our hearts, and we are sending love and strength your way.
