“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Maureen will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Maureen again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Maureen seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Maureen was the sister i never had, but most of all she was my best friend. She will be missed so very much. Our prayers are with her. She is in a better place now. We had so many wonderful times together. Good times and some bad times too. Just knowing she was my friend made the bad times much easier. God Bless you

“ Jon, Missy, & Chris - I will keep you in my prayers. Losing your Mother is one of the hardest things to endure in life but remember that she is forever happy now in a better place waiting to see you someday. I have fond memories of visiting Michigan in the summer when I was a girl and how your Mum made me feel right at home. She was a fine lady. So sorry, this is such a shock.

“ Chris and Tiffany I will miss Maureen more than you can imagine, my heart is broken. I will cherish the friendship we developed over these past few years as we shared what kinds of craft projects we were working on. I will miss the funny e-mails we shared and the care and concern we shared for both of you. She loved you two more than you will probably ever know. She was so proud of what you both have accomplished in your lives. She was my friend, one that doesn't come along everyday, she was so special. You are in my prayers. I Love you.

“ Dearest Mellisa and family, in this moment of sorrow I ask that our Heavenly Family comfort you and keep you in Their arms. Please be assured of my prayers for Maureen, asking the Good Lord to open His Merciful Heart and allowed His beloved daughter to enter the Everlasting Paradise where all are happy and no tear shall ever be shed again. Love and prayers, Fr. Dan

“ I send my condolence to your family. We all have lost our loved ones oneway or other and death is the most painful experience one can ever have because man was meant to live forever and therefore God has provided a ramson sacrifice Jesus Christ. By his blood we have a hope of reserrection and as such we will see all the dead come to life. Jehovah God says he has better plans for us. Acts 24:15 talks about the resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Please read the scripture for comfort.

“ I remember Maureen as the cutest cousin. We always went to Midland to watch her open her Christmas presents. I remember when she was perfecting a pie for a contest which she won. Her dad and my mom were siblings.

“ Bill, Jon, Missi, Chris, Amy, Jennifer, Bill -- Maureen was one of the sweetest people I've ever known. She was there to lend an ear on so many occasions. I cherished her as a sister-in-law and friend. I know she willl be missed by so many and was loved deeply by her brother. I am so sorry for your loss. My deepest sympathies to all of you.
