“ My dearest Melissa - Today is August 20, 2009, four years after your passing. Each year, on this day the sun has been shining, today as I write it is raining. On August 8, your birthday, it also rained, the whole family, your Mom's side and Dad's side, we were going to meet out at the camp, but had to put it off until the next day, August 9, which was Grandpas birthday, your dads father. We all met out at the camp, we went down to the lake, and when all came down we each took our little packet, we gathered in a circle, Kris read a letter she wrote. When she finished we opened our little packets and released the Monarch butterflies, inside each one. How beautiful, I am sure you were with us, smiling your wonderful smile, because the sun came out. Some of the family went swimming. We all went back to the cabin and had our dinner. The food was really good. If wishing and praying could bring you back to us, you would have been with us, forever, not just in our minds and hearts. Today is also my second great grand child, Kyle, it is his birthday, he is seven years old. Next year, God willing, I will write to you again. you will be in my thoughts and prayers every day. I will love you forever, till the end of my time - Love you Missy - Gram

BROKEN HEART - December 12, 2014 at 10:35 AM

“ 8 - 08 - '08 - 3 years have passed. since I wished you a Happy Birthday ? on your 27 th year. My lovely grand daughter ? never did I think it would be the last time I spoke to you, I said bye love you so much. See you when you come for your birthday dinner, the food I bought for your dinner is still in the freezer. Another year has passed, you are now 30 years old, this year I turned three quarters of a century,Wow, 75 years, remember when great grandma Davis turned 75 we all went to her party, thought she is getting old ? now it is my turn - I do not feel any older - The family gave me a surprise party. It was wonderful - I know you and grandpa were watching the whole thing ? Last years Golf outing in your memory, every table had a plant of pink Gerber Daisy's, I took one home, it had a few leaves left on it by April, I know you made it bloom, one pink flower for my birthday, I showed it to Kris, she also thought you made it bloom for me - now it is outside and blooms darker pink blossoms, it is beautiful, like you. Your Mom and Dad, for your birthday, they have butterflies that they will let go at the camp - Aunt Deb will take me - this year we know about it and we will be there - they say rain tomorrow, if it rains tonight, you & granpa spread your wings over us so the butterflies do not get wet - We have more babies, 2007 joelle on Nov. 24, had Kennedy Chae and Katrina had the next day Nov 25, Caleb Anthony, born three months to soon - he is now eight months and still having a hard time with life ? 2008 - Brittany on May 30 - had Haylie Ann - Aaron & Anne on June 18 -had - Kiely Renee, now we are waiting for Justin & Kelly to have their boy in September ? Just to think, I have fifteen grand's and soon fifteen great grand children, thirty so far - tomorrow we will all be together, a party for McKenzie, her third birthday ? It is also grandpas birthday ? he would be 75 years. all the little ones will be running around, having fun, but our hearts will be heavy, you will not be their or Kat's little boy, but if God answers prayers he will soon be running around with the rest, having fun too. I was looking through a drawer and found the box of candy you gave me on one of your surprise visits, in 2002, when I opened the cover I read the date you gave it, I cried, I do not cry often, I keep it all inside me, I must be getting old. Roses are red, Violets are blue,

Oh my Missy how I miss you. My thoughts and prayers will always be with you untill we are together - Love you forever - Gram

Gram - Val Davis - December 12, 2014 at 10:35 AM

“ We love you and think about you everyday. We miss your smile, your laugh, your warmth and your tenderness. You always had a story to tell and made even the simple things exciting. Life was a constant "high" when you were around.

“ August 8, 2007 ? Missy, it is a beautiful sunny day again, just like a year ago today, you know the sun makes us feel a little better, so you smile down at us. Today is your 29th birthday, two years have passed, since we were happy, your 27 th birthday, now the family has a missing link, almost two years since you passed, time goes by so fast. Grandpa has been gone 15 ? years, my sister, Michelle, 3 ? years, I pray the rest of our family will be around for many years to come. We have four new babies, you knew Joelle had Mc Kenzie, born on August 6, 2005, ? Aaron had Richard Gregory, December 26, ?05 ? Joelle had Aliana, November 29, 2006 and Jodi had Mc Kenna, born May 8, 2007 ? you would love them all ? I have started working in my garden again ? I have had a few bad years, Shell with her cancer, I had a hard time dealing with loosing my sister and could not help her, then the day your Dad called me, again, I could not do anything to bring you back ? my prayers did not help, Michelle or you - Why ? I know how peaceful it is on the other side, when I drowned at 7 years old, God sent my angel to fix me, he knew I had a lot of work to do on this earth. I just wish that Jeep could pull into my parking lot and you surprise me like you did, so many times. Hi Gram, that wonderful smile on your face ? I miss our visits, until we will be togerher ? Love you Missy, forever & a day, Hugs & Kisses - Gram

“ Jeff and Laura, I am so very sorry for your loss. To have such beautiful child remove from your life is not fair. But hopefully you have come to understand that our Lord, Jesus Christ, has plans for each and everyone of us. He knew that your daughter Melissa was needed to fullfill His plan for all of us. I will pray for Melissa and your entire family to find peace and understanding. Your Friend in Christ, Mike “ It's our 2nd year, and our 2nd set of hoidays without you here with us. Thanksgiving was one of your favorite holidays to spend with your family. One of the things we used to do was to go around the table each saying what we were most grateful for, and it was always "our family"!!! We no longer ask each other that question, and probably never will again. It seems impossible to answer now, but if we had to, we would now say that we are grateful to have been able to spend your life with you. We try to honor your memory by continuing the "family traditions" we started so very long ago, but something is always missing... YOU!!!

*We miss you so much, and will never forget your beautiful soul.

“ August 8, 2006 -

Today is a beautiful sunny day, you must be smiling down at all of us that love you, trying to ease our tears and heavy hearts.

Are you dancing with Aunt Shell and Grandpa ?

Because -

Today is your twenty eighth birthday.

*Last year you were in Florida, all was happy in our family - I phoned you and said Happy twenty seventh - on my birthday I was the reverse - we laughed - you are in my mind and prayers every day and night - I think of you and miss you.
I miss your surprise visits - our talks, your smiling face - you had a smile that could light up a room, and our hearts, you had your grandpa Davis smile, can you imagine how much brighter it is in heaven, now that she is with him, that bright light must be ten times brighter - when they smile.*

I would have given you, my last breath if it would have kept you alive, I would do the same for any of my children, grand children or great - grand children, but life does not work that way, we each have our own road to travel, some are long, some are short.

One of my favorite quotes - "Don't put off until tomorrow, What you should do today" For tomorrow may never come, for some - we all do that, because we do not know what tomorrow brings - *if only - We, should have, could have, would have,

If any one of us had know the future, we would have put a wall around Missy, to keep her with us, so she would not have to leave - but life does not work like that - Know mater how many years we live, it is never long enough - for those who love you and are left behind to grieve, for however long.*

Life will go on with or without us - as long as we are remembered, we go on -

They say when your work is over on this earth, you pass on, but I cannot believe, Missy's work was over, she touched to many lives.

*Yesterday has past, so live for today,
tomorrow, has yet to come.*

Missy, will save us, a place in heaven, and when it is our time - greet us, like she always did, with that big smile that touched us to our very soul -

Love you forever, my Missy Moo-Till I can hug & kiss you again - Gram

“ I hate spelling words wrong, so here is a corrected version, I hope i caught all the mistakes.

*Sometimes I want to run my nails down my face, Sometimes I want to scream
Sometimes I want to curl up in my bed Ant pretend it?s all a dream*

*I talk to you aloud and wait
For an answer to be herd
To think of you as being gone
Is totally absurd!*

My eyes won?t shut in hopes to see The slightest glimpse of you My body won?t sleep in yearn to feel Your softest touch so true

*I lay, I stand, I sit, and stare Silent and alone
Waiting for my sissy sue
To find me and come home*

*I smiled, I danced, I cried, I sang With you always by my side
Now for whom with deepest trust Am I ever to confide?*

*No one sis, no ones here
To tell my darkest soul
No one here to know me truly
And completely as a whole*

*You knew my breath
I knew your sigh
You knew my deepest secrets
And I knew what made you high*

*From above you Will always have to guide me
And together
We will go on peacefully*

*Through this life that is so cruel And totally unfair
With out you I will have to Solitarily bear*

A life that was to be our own Together you and I, we could have flown

*To see the moon to see the stars
To be the life that was known as ours*

*With everything planned Between you and me
Being wives and then mothers,
How can I be?*

With out you I am nothing That not said, I would be bluffing

*Everything in our lives Were so thoughtfully structured There?s a needle in my heart
And I am not nearly sutured*

*I am ripped open and empty Leaving nothing to our life
I guess that is what he means*

When he say?s sacrifice!

*But a person so perfect makes me Just have to ask why
How could he let two glorious lives
Just curl up and die?*

*I am not me with out you Am not complete without my sister
I am not alive with out my joy
That makes my heart happily blister*

*So as I wait alone for you Fill me with you full
And together through life we?ll walk Though at times you?ll have to pull*

For at times I may be much to weak To think I could possibly go on And just as you always promised You?re beside me, to be my confidant!

“ This is the most devastating of life's events. How can there ever be words to console you at the loss of a child? That is not the natural order of what we believe to be our life cycle, a parent should never outlive a child, and yet it happens day after day. There can be no understanding, nor explanation. Our prayer for you is that you somehow gather the strength necessary to survive this. Our thoughts are with you and our arms are surrounding you.

“ Dear Jeff, Laura, Kristy & all of the Davis family

I was so shocked & saddened to hear of your family's tragedy. I was horse back riding with Susan Barrera and she shared the horrible news with me. When I told our son David, who had gotten to know Melissa a while back, he was also horribly sad & said she was an unbelievably nice, warm and caring person. He said knowing her for only a short time, you felt like you knew her forever.

There never seem to be words that can help at such a horrbly sad time, so I can only add that my deepest sympathy is with all of you, and I know from a dear friend who lost her son. time will help.

This miracle God gave to me gives me strength when I am weak

Oh it puts a smile in my heart Everything becomes a little clearer

It's giving more when you feel like giving up I've seen the light It's in my daughter's eyes*

Though she'll grow and someday leave Maybe raise a family
When I'm gone I hope you see how happy she made me
For I'll be there
In my daughter's eyes.*

“ I'm terribly sorry to hear about the loss of Melissa I knew Melissa through the tanning salon I used to work at along with Kristy. Melissa was such a beautiful person inside and out, she had such a great smile. I hadn't seen Melissa in a couple of years, I just remember her and Kristy were the best of friends I can't imagine losing my sister. My prayers and thoughts are with your family at this difficult time.
GOD BLESS you Melissa.

“ Unfortunately, I didn't know Melissa Joy but my mother, my fiance, and I met Melissa's grandmother Valerie at her home this past Sunday. We just happened to stop by to get some information about the Win-Ton kennel. Valerie tearfully explained how her beloved granddaughter had just passed away unexpectedly the day before. I felt so much grief and heartache in her words and I was so terribly sorry to hear about her loss. I myself am 28 years old and getting married next year at Fox Hills - I can't imagine how much pain your family must be going through to lose a daughter, a granddaughter, a sister, a dear friend with so much life ahead. I know nothing can bring her back but I firmly believe we all do live on through those that we have loved and who have in turn loved us. I would like to extend my sincere condolences to your whole family. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ My Dear Sweet Niece Melissa ~ My heart broke the day you left us, and my life will never be the same without you. I wish I had more time with you, but you were needed for a higher purpose. I'm sure you're helping someone out somewhere. I know we will meet up again someday, but until then remember how much I love you. It was a honor to be your Aunt. I will forever cherish all the memories I have with you...

Love Always ~ Aunt Shell

Laura, Jeff, Kristy, & Justin ~ Always remember I am here for you whenever you need me.

“ I cannot ease your breaking hearts,
Nor take your pain away,
But let me stay and take your hand
And walk with you today.
I?ll listen when you need to talk,
I?ll wipe away your tears,
I?ll share your grief, I?ll cry with you,
I?ll help you thru the years.
I?m here and I will stand by you,
Each hill you have to climb,
So take my hand, let?s face the world?
Live one day at a time.
You?re not alone, for I?m still here,
I?ll go that extra mile,
And when your grief is easier,
I?ll help you learn to smile ?
Love, forever Mom

“ Dear Laura & Jeff...We can not even begin to know the sorrow your family is going through, although words seem to say so little, we hope they help in some small way to ease the sense of loss that you're experiencing today. Hold fast to your memories, to all of the cherished moments of the past, to the blessings and the laughter, the joys and the celebrations, the sorrow and the tears. They all add up to a treasure of fond yesterdays that you both shared with her. They will keep Melissa close to you in spirit and thought. These special moments and memories in your life will never change. They will always be in your heart's, today and forevermore.

“ My heartfelt sympathies to your family. I had only met Melissa at the Nail salon when she started there. Even though I only knew her briefly, her natural beauty - both inside and out was evident from the first. Her warm energy will be missed at the salon and I'm sure by all that knew her well and loved her.
