

Michael J. Davidson

June 25, 1964 - May 6, 2025

Davidson, Michael J. – May 6, 2025 age 60 of Canton. Beloved husband of Amy for 29 years. Loving and proud father of twins Andrew, Elizabeth, William, and Jack. Dear brother of Susan (Steve Murray) Davidson. Beloved son of John and Carol Davidson. Mike was a 28 year resident of Canton. He attended Farmington High School ('82), the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University, where he proudly earned "Outstanding Senior in Business".

Mike worked as a finance analyst for Ford for 14 years. He served on the Sunflower Village Homeowners Association Board, and shared his leadership in scouting and baseball with his children. He cherished his time as a stay-at-home twin dad during the early years. Mike was an avid University of Michigan and Detroit sports fan. He enjoyed collecting memorabilia, reading a good mystery, trying out new technology, and developing home projects. He had a knack for trivia, games and all kinds of learning. He will be incredibly missed.

A Funeral Mass will be held on Saturday, June 14th gathering at 10:30 AM until the 11 AM Mass at St. John Neumann Catholic Church, 44800 Warren Road, Canton, MI 48187.

“ Dearest Amy and family,

Sending love, hope, and strength to help you through each day. ❤️

Hope this last stanza of Maya Angelou's poem "When Great Trees Fall" helps you as it does me...

*And when great souls die,
after a period peace blooms,
slowly and always irregularly. Spaces fill with a kind of soothing electric vibration.
Our senses, restored, never to be the same, whisper to us.
They existed. They existed.
We can be. Be and be better. For they existed.*

Love you always!

“ Oh Amy, Elizabeth’s, Andrew, Jack, and Will. I am so very sorry for your loss.

I have many memories of Mike.... But to two most impression leaving, that I think about all the time, happened at the Summit. During the stay at home days.

The younger twins in the double stroller, Jack in the because it rhymed.... And Jack would pull hair..... except one day..... Mike mentioned needing to run to Lowe’s or Home Depot.... I said to leave the boys as it would take half the time that way. A woman came along and complimented me and asked there names. Will for some reason was in the back and it threw me. This woman was deeply offended and it didn’t get better when I explained their dad would be right back.... And he had put them in the wrong seats, and I did know their names. When she huffed away, it hit me..... she likely thought I was a foolish woman who didn’t know know her own babies unless someone put them in a stroller for me.....Mike thought that was hilarious, and more so that I cared what a total stranger thought.

And of course June 1, 2006. The older twins were in class with Connor. I was a week away from surgery with the fertility doctor and Mike was going to bring Connor for me the next week. It had been two years, and this was a last ditch effort. He began asking oddly specific questions about pre surgery testing..... then he sighed and said “I know what you’re going through, and I don’t want to make it worse.... But I’m not usually wrong on this.... I knew we were having twins both times..... I just know when people are pregnant, and often boy or girl..... you are giving me a pregnant vibe. I left, went to the store..... in the Target restroom..... hello Sydney.

He could tell by the look on my face. I neither confirmed nor denied but said he could tell Amy and only Amy, as I hadn’t reached anyone yet.

Over the years life changed and got in the way... but what great friends you are.

I will be praying for all of you!

“Reading about Mike as a father, I'm not surprised. Having know him in earlier times, his gentle, thoughtful, loving manner would, of course, have come through in the kind of involved, engaged parenting described in the obituary. My memories of Mike are all good. I'm glad to have them, but wish there could be more.”
