Michael Deschaw - March 06, 2021 at 08:47 PM

“ *Dear Larry, Teri, Ryan and Renee,
I am so sorry to hear about Michael. He was my first boyfriend and first love. I had even named my first son Michael after your precious son. He has always had a special place in my heart. I will love and miss him deeply. I wish you all the best and I hope you can find peace through this tragic time.
My families deepest condolences go out to you all. We here in Boston Massachusetts would like to just say that "We are so truly SORRY, and that Michael will be in our prayers forever.*

“ The world isn't fair and our lives are a mystery, with so many questions unanswered: Why our loved one? Is his/her spirit still here? What happened? Could it have been prevented, or was it in their fate? Is there such thing a destiny? I could go on and on with so many question I ask myself continuously everyday, and unfortunately, there are no answers.

I am the sister of the beautiful Melissa Joy Davis, she passed Aug. 20, 2005 at the age of 27 (her obituary is on this website,) so I can relate to what your family is going through, AND IT SUCKS!!!! They say time will help, but for me, the pain just gets deeper and deeper the more I realize, "my sissy" isn't here. They say her spirit is here, but why hasn't she shown herself to me? They say "god" had a reason, well what is the reason for leaving us all here torn and broken? Sure we will all learn to cope with this tragedy, but nothing will ever be the same, nothing will ever be "normal", it's hard to think that there will ever be truly happy times. A piece is missing, making us all incomplete, never to be whole again.

I am deeply sorry for your loss, this pain has got to be the worst pain humanely possible.

I wish I could give words of comfort or say something to easy the pain, but there is nothing. You are in my prayers.

As time passes, you may find that you feel the need to talk to other people that that have experienced the same type of thing (I know my parents and I have,) if any of you feel like talking or just feel like sitting, please contact us. 734-420-0278.

Truly, Kristy Davis

“ Larry and family,
Please accept our condolences at your loss of Mike. We only knew him for a short time when he and Brad skated with the Midget Stingrays, but he was always a pleasure to be around and was a favorite teammate of Brad's. I'm sure he'll be missed by many.
Sincerely,
Gary, Susan, and Brad

“ just wished to send my personal condolences, apart from the company's, to both of you. The message I got from Larry during his visits to Curacao, spoke of great family values, so dear to me too. Mostly words are my playground. Now I am just trying to express the great impact of the news this morning. My prayers for your family I trust will help you confront this tremendous loss. If coming to Curacao may help you overcome, please know warm hearts are awaiting you, since to me too nothing compares to the moments you have to face. A special notice will be sent to all employees. My most sincere condolences and be sure that in Curacao somebody is thinking of and praying for you and your beloved son.

“ *Dear Larry,
I know that in the world does not exist word that can express your feeling and grieff at this moment. But I strong believe that we came to this world to do a mission and when it?s complete our Lord call us back to his arm.
Please let him goes and just remember the happy moments and treasure them in your heart and the pain will pass. (I just know because a few months a go a lost my mother and my only brother).
So life goes on and we learn. So give all my love to your lovely wife and your children. Remember we can give them material things, but the only the take with them when they leave this life is our love for them..*

All my love from Panama

“ Dear Deschaw Family,

I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I sat next to Mike in 2nd grade at Bird Elementary and have always credited him for helping me to be more outgoing. I was the shyest little girl ever and sitting next to him helped bring me out of my shell because he was always so talkative and full of life. I'm sorry to hear of this sad news, but I will keep you and that energetic 8 year old boy i remember, in my prayers.
