

Michael C. Patti

December 9, 1966 - February 1, 2024

Patti, Michael C., February 1, 2024, age 57 of Livonia. Loving husband of Tricia. Cherished father of Sophia.

Known as “Dino” to many of his co-workers. Affectionately referred to as “Uncle Mike” by all the kids who looked up to him. Mike was a 30 plus year veteran of the Detroit Police Department. He had a big personality, and a gift for storytelling and making people laugh.

Mike loved snowmobiling, riding dirt bikes, ATVs and anything with a motor. He loved classic cars, hot rods and restoring them. He loved trucks, jeeps, and taking them off road. Everyone who knew him knows how much he loved animals; his dogs were loved and spoiled.

The family requests to please bring a favorite photo of Mike to add to the display at the funeral home and to cherish afterwards.

Visitation Wednesday, February 7th 1-9 PM with a 7:30 PM Rosary at Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, 46401 Ann Arbor Road West (between Sheldon and Beck), Plymouth.

“ Mike and my brother John were thick as thieves as kids. They always tried to outdo the other with pranks. I'll always remember the weekend we moved my parents to Marine City from Dearborn. It was hot and the boys were out by the river. Mike thought it was a good idea to run up behind me, scoop me over his shoulder, and jump in the river, not knowing my 3 year old daughter was hanging onto me trying to save me! Scary for a minute but we all had a good laugh afterwards. He was a prankster through and through. I hope God is ready for him! Will miss you, Mike

“ No words could ever express how deeply this loss will be felt by everyone who knew him and loved him... He always razzed me on my shooting and hunting skills and abilities, the fact that I wore gloves like a sissy when harvesting an animal and finally last week I sent him a picture of a barehanded harvest. He and I laughed over that.. which will not be forgotten ever. I will forever hold a great many memories or conversations about motorcycles and 4 wheeling, face planting in the mud or against a tree and he always calling my antics “girly” or “lame”.. in my heart as he topped that story with one of his own ... he certainly was a man’s man and there was always a “competitive” spirit between the 2 of us on who had the loudest motorcycle, the best machines, who had the best adventures off roading and who had best guns or the longest shot.. love you Michael... till we meet again... God only takes the best of the best... “more than most” bro... “more than most”

“ There are not many people on this earth that I call “friend”. This man was my friend. I will miss coming into work every day and hearing you share adventures that would happen to no one else except you Mike Patti. He had a personality louder than life. He always talked about the work cat he hated, but loved unconditionally. A US marine with no filter who would talk smack about you, then give you the shirt off his back. He had your back and you knew it. It was an honor wearing a badge with you my brother, my friend. You were called home to guard the throne of heaven, God knew you were the best. One day we will meet again at roll call. Rest easy. There are no words to say how much I will miss you.
