“ To the Sergi Family. I'm sorry for the loss of your dear loved one Michael, he will truly be missed... One thing that helps me to deal or cope with losing a loved one is this scripture "God...will wipe all tears from their eyes, there will be no more DEATH, SUFFERING, CRYING, OR PAIN."-Revelation 21:3,4 Contemporary English Version. see www.jw.org

“ *To my friend Pete Mckool, Kate&Pete and family. Wishing you peace, your friend from Florida.
A rose once grew where all could see, One day a beam of light shone through a crevice. The rose bent gently and passed beyond to the other side.
Now you who deeply feel it's loss be comforted . For the rose blooms, there on the other side even greater now Nurtured ...by God's own love.*

“ Sue, Mary Ann and Delores,
I met Mike as a co-worker, then added social activities as we became friends and then totally social in our mutual retirement years. I will never forget Mike and all our frequent get togethers with Sue and my wife. Our favorite passtime was to go get a good Italian meal and crack a bottle of Chianti. Mike loved his heritage and his family. Mike was not two-faced in that one always knew his opinion on a subject and it might not be the popular position. Beverly and I loved him. Mike and I always hugged and in recent years would unashamedly tell each other we loved the other. This is not something casual friends do; we were real friends thus this affection was easy to show. My prayers are with Mike, his family and dear Sue. Last night as we were flying home over the Atlantic Mike popped into my mind and I just thought about him and the need to call Sue and inquire as to his condition -- I had no sense of foreboding - just the need to inquire. My tears flow unabashedly as I have lost a dear friend - God be with him.

*With all our love,
Gary and Beverly*

“ Sue,
I am so sorry for your loss ... Mike was a great guy! Please know that you are still in my prayers, and that you now have him as your own special 'angel' in heaven to watch over you! Love, Michelle
