“ Mike Yockey was a dear, beloved friend and neighbor for almost forty years. My late husband, Bob, and Mike loved to kibbitz about which school had the best football team: the Green or the Blue. Our two families were known in the neighborhood for our annual Halloween Garage Parties, where we passed out treats to the kids and enjoyed food and drink with our families and friends, We had almost forty of those special parties. Mike will be missed by so many. He was kind. He was caring. He was my friend. My deepest sympathy to Pam and all the family.
Sincerely,
Patricia Greene
