“ I am so sorry to hear of Michelle's passing. For several years she was a wonderful room mother and classroom volunteer in my classroom. Her beautiful smile and energy was appreciated by the Tonda students and staff. She was a wonderful role model for her children and her legacy lives on through them. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Michelle loved the Lord Jesus and it was evident in the way she lived out her faith every day of her life - she was generous, loving, caring, had a great sense of humor, and had that beautiful contagious smile! She has heard the words we all long to hear: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant".

We love you, Maxam family, and will keep you in our prayers.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Michelle's passing. A smile that would light up a room, warm and generous to all she met. She touched the lives of so many of her Lahser High School classmates and will not be forgotten. We were all very blessed to have known her. My deepest and sincerest condolences to the Maxam and McKinnon families.

“Michelle was a great co-worker and friend. We would stand around our office or at the lunch table and laugh so hard sometimes that it brought tears to our eyes. I will always smile at the thought of something funny that she did or said. She was a great shoulder to lean on and never made anyone feel less-than. She had a growing heart for her daughter, Hannah's, active mission in Detroit.

She was just an incredible friend. She always thought of others and did special projects for them, whether it was her photography, scrapbooking, or knitting a blanket. More often than not it would be a surprise for them. She loved GIVING.

I look forward to the day I see her in Christ's presence. My prayers go out to her parents, to Mark, Becca, Erin, Hannah, Josh, their spouses and children. Michelle will be missed.

“ I can remember when I had 2 miscarriages before we got our son Seth. Michelle had taken it upon herself to have a special blanket made for our son Seth and once it was done she mailed it to me here in Georgia. I will never forget that and will cherish that forever. I am so glad that my husband and I decided to go to Calvary Baptist when we moved into the Plymouth/Canton area. We met some great people and the Maxam's were one those that we met.

“ Mark, Michelle is a great gal. Spiritually deep, a great partner, mother, grandmother, and friend, and now a part of the heavenly host. Easy to talk to, fun, and upbeat. There are not enough superlatives in the English language to describe her. We talked about her briefly in the hall at church just before she became ill. Now that she has graduated from bootcamp, she is beginning what God fully intended her to do. For you, a very deep sorrowful time. This we promise. We will pray for your spirit, and we will come along beside you, to listen, to help, and to be a source of comfort in the coming months. You are greatly loved my brother.

“ Because Michelle was an incurable scrapbooks. No gathering of friends or family would be complete without pictures. This always included at least on group shot which featured everyone trying to hold a smile while Michelle set the timer and made a mad dash back to the group trying to fit herself in and hold the perfect smile in time for the flash. Of course nobody was aloud to move until Michelle returned to the camera and inspected the picture. If she was not satisfied, we would repeat the process until she was. Lol. There are some great pics in those many books of hers!!!

“ I had over 20 years of memories from bible study groups, vacations, social events, working together and sharing each other's family special times, but the ones that mean the most to me is when we met for lunch and opened up and shared our struggles and triumphs or the phone calls that we had to talk about our lives. I am forever thankful that God gave me Michelle as a friend!

“ Mark and family, We are thinking of you during this difficult time. We are rejoicing that Michelle is with her Lord and Savior, basking in the wonders of heaven. But here on earth she will be greatly missed. Throughout this time Don and I have been remembering our time with you now many years ago. You were both an encouragement to us as we began our ministry. Be assured that our prayers will be with you as you all begin this new season of life. Heaven will be so much closer to your hearts. Our Love and Prayers. Don and Deb Hoover

We loved Michelle's beautiful smile and heart. She was truly as beautiful on the inside as the outside--so filled with the love of Jesus. That was exemplified in her life and radiated on her face. She was a walking testimony to Christ and inspired so many to do the same. Our love and prayers for all of you during this extremely difficult time of loss and sadness. Heaven is rejoicing and I am sure Michelle is also rejoicing with the Lord. God Bless you all.
