“ My condolences to Dave and family. Such fond memories while they lived in Walkerton. I'll never forget our 2 families doing such fun things together. We shared a cabin at the YMCA Camp of the Rockies and a Wawasee Lake cottage. We had fun water skiing, playing cards & "Spoon". She was loved by all.

“ I echo my sister, Heidi's sentiments. It was so wonderful having Aunt Eileen and Uncle David and their children living so near by when we moved from Alaska to Indiana. They helped me discover the joy of extended family. It's strange how you think you know someone so well, but discover new things about them when they die. I never knew my Aunt's first name was Mildred! She was always Eileen to us. Though gone, she still lives through us! Thank you, God, for my Aunt "Mildred." -- Ed Fenstermacher

“ When our family moved from Nome, Alaska, having been on the mission field, we relocated to Walkerton, Indiana--a block away from my mom's brother, Uncle David. He had searched for and chosen our house ahead of our arrival! We had been isolated for several years, having been in Africa, prior to Alaska. As children, we hadn't experienced the extended family, like most do, cousins, grandparents, aunts, uncles--even long drives away. We communicated thru' reel to reel tapes, that took a long time to get to one another. So, when we landed in Walkerton, for a fifth grader who was struggling & behind in school, due to where we'd been, feeling vulnerable...it felt like heaven to have family a short walk away. Aunt Eileen was always kind to me, I always felt sure she loved me. So many memories of Uncle David sitting at our kitchen table discussing the current events, or deep questions about the meaning of life, faith, Agape love! I loved having cousins, & that's what I felt coming home to there...Agape love. So grateful.
