“ Scott and Lisa, I am so sorry for your loss. My heart grieves with you. What a beautiful young woman God blessed you with for a daughter. She had such a sweet and beautiful spirit. I pray God comforts you with His peace and compassion, and that you feel Him present. I pray you feel wrapped inside His love and strength too. May His angels stand guard around you as Jesus gradually heals you and restores you from this loss. I pray the Lord will renew your joy once again as each day you move closer to when you will reunite with her again. ---Sending All My Love and Prayers To You, Cousin Natalie (Fleming) Hill (Dudley and Jeanie's daughter) and Family “ Today I say good bye to my dear young friend, Molly.

For Molly:

*You breathe life where ever you go;
Heaven has a new rainbow.*

*Like the sun, moon and stars are in the sky,
These, like you, are thought of day and night.
And when on my face I feel the wind blow,
This like your friendship sends peace to my soul.*

*Nothing will soothe the pain of the friend I have lost,
Yet, only a brief moment in time, till our path shall once again cross.*

*Rest in Peace, Molly.
When the people we love become a memory; our memories of them become our treasure.
You are a beautiful memory Molly, will always be loved and shall never be forgotten.*

“ You were and are the best friend iv ever had and could have ever asked for. Its so hard trying to go on day to day now knowing I will not see that beautiful face hear that beautiful voice anymore, knowing that my best friend the one person I always wanted there most and always went to first for anything and everything will only be there with me in soul but not in person anymore. Nothing more tragic than this. I love you Molly Ann Fleming I promise your soul and legacy will always live on through me and everybody else who absolutely adores you from now until forever. Please show me signs that you are still here with me. With all of us. I love you sooo much my baby. I know your resting peacefully now. See you on the other side one day, I know you will be standing right at the pearly gates waiting to greet me and give me the biggest, warmest hug. Just wish I could have one of those right now. I love you Molly.

“ Molly you are a little sister to me. This news is very hard for me to take because we grew up together.. Next door. Me u and mike used to spend everyday together making trouble for the neighborhood lol. I know we've grown apart over the years but you are one of the biggest sweethearts I've ever met... you're also one of the toughest girls I know. I am glad I got to see you before Christmas. You were talking about how much u love mike and your parents. We were reminiscing on the good times from fox meadow south. I love you sis. I'm so sorry to hear it go down like this but I know God has a nice spot reserved for you in heaven. Look forward to seeing u. Condolences to your family. Mike, lisa, Scott- let me know if I can do anything for u guys. 😞

“ I knew Molly from middle school choir. I remember her making me laugh so hard I couldn't breathe. I had a really hard time in middle school and Molly was so sweet to me. Always asking me how I was holding up and cheering me up. We never hung out but I'd run into her in public places and she'd greet me with a big hug and smile. She always complimented me and told me how beautiful I was and that's so rare to find in an individual. She always just wants to put a smile on people's' faces. We facebook messaged eachother here and there letting eachother know we were there for eachother if we needed. Our last conversation we had was March of last year to let her know I was gonna help her get a job where I worked. I'm so sorry for the family of Molly and prayers coming your way. She's a beautiful beautiful angel.

“ We met 3 years ago now in Detroit. She was such an amazing person. She put a smile on all of our faces. She gave off a beautiful energy and was even more beautiful a girl. So many memories in such a short period of time. Last time we really hung out we played truth or dare with a group of friends at her house. I will never forget her. <3

“ I met Molly in 9th grade and I'll never forget that day! Molly was so sweet and caring and would do anything for anyone in a heartbeat. We called each other twinnie because our names are one letter off & so were our cell phone numbers. One day at school we both came in with Mitch-matched socks on and as hilarious as it was we had each others matches on!! Haha! I've had ALOT of fun memories through out highschool with her that I will NEVER forget. May you rest easy in paradise Molly. My thoughts are with your family. You are LOVED and NEVER forgotten. ❤️❤️❤️

“ Molly and I have been friends for about 5 years. This past summer (2014) we became very close. It seems like just yesterday you were at my apartment and we were swimming in our pool on the hot sunny days. My favorite memory is when Molly, her boyfriend Tom, Jessika Mansfield, and Sarah Johnson went disc golf this summer and it started to down pour. We carried on playing as if we were pros. We were drenched. The pictures of our wet tshirt contest were the best. Molly you are loved by so many and forgotten by no one. Rest in Paradise babygirl. <3
