“ Dear Christy Cousins:

I had the privilege of reconnecting with Mona in our adult lives....via e-mail and Christmas cards. But I best knew her when we were young.

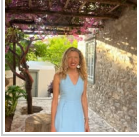

As a kid she was always so spunky and funny and irreverent...she would crack us up at Grandma Christy's as we drank Vernor's and ate potato chips out in the "shanty" (back porch). Made going to Grandma's much more fun!!! I was happy to know she hadn't changed over the years, still a pistol with a big heart. She loved the Lord and was happy to share her faith. I know she is in His loving hands, laughing and joking with her beloved sister Sue.

Thank goodness for e-mail...I was so fortunate to reconnect with her. May wonderful memories of her bring your comfort Tony, Judy and Dennis.

God Bless Mona.

*Aloha and love,
Terry (Christy) Decker*

“ Mona was an incredibly strong and caring person who always made others feel at ease. At five years old I recall her saying, "Call me Mona. My mother in-law is Mrs. Clark." Growing up, I always felt like I was a member of Mona and Barry's family, and I appreciated her warmth and affection every time we were together. I remember her showing understanding and grace on several occasions, including when I went camping with the Clark family at Yogi Bear Jellystone Park. After spending some of my spending money on licorice (that was intended for the water slide) at the local store, Mona lent me additional funds so that I could join in the fun with Tracey and Jamie.

*With love, hugs, and appreciation for countless, unforgettable memories,
Amy*

“ Amazing how we can develop life long friendships with the people you work alongside. I love Mona Christy Clark, her and I shared a lot of good times and bad too. The love she expressed for her family especially for her brother who became the donor that prolonged her life was infinite. She went to heaven to find the love of her life, her departed husband. I will never forget her and the impact she had on me.

“ Mona, Barry, Jamie, and Tracey have been life long friends of our family. Mona was an amazing woman who embraced me as her own. When grocery shopping she would pick up pickles for me to enjoy while visiting her at their home. She sat with me when I was sick and encouraged me during the difficult years of adolescence. She will be deeply missed! ”
