“ I am so thankful that God brought Faye "Zinnie" Zimmerman Mueller to Michigan so many years ago. We met and became good friends at Merriman Road Baptist Church, Garden City! She always was smiling, even if she was hurting inside. We ate her "Gobs" and loved every bite! My dad, Edmond Howard, walked her down the aisle when she and Dennis married. So thankful for the care her children have given her. My sisters and I pray God's comfort and watch care over them. Linda Mathis

“ It surprises me to realize that Faye has been a part of my life for almost 50 years. I was a little girl and she a young wife and mother when the Mueller family moved in next to us in Inkster. Faye and Dennis both brought such laughter and friendship into our lives. I know that the two of them are up in heaven swapping stories with our Mum. May God ease your hearts with the knowledge that the entire family is loved. Forever your friends and neighbor - the Kuptz Family
