To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded. Ralph Waldo Emerson

“ Dear Family of Mrs. Cook - It would be impossible for me to relate any one memory of your Mom/Grandmother. She was always smiling and laughing and enjoyed when all of us "girls" would hang out at your Livonia home. She was so fortunate to have your love and support during these last few difficult years. Please know she and all of you are in my heart and prayers. I too, will keep my fond memories of both Mr. & Mrs. Cook
