“ My grandmother was a huge part of my life; in many ways she was the epitome of the “parent” part of the word grandparent. While her passing means an end to her suffering here on earth, it leaves behind a hole that can not be filled. Much like walking into a room and knowing something is missing or out of place, her absence will be forever be noticed.

I simply have too many memories of my grandmother to narrow it down. She was simply always in my life and I am forever grateful that I got to know her as an infant, a child, a teenager, and an adult.

“ I will miss you very much!! We spent the last two years ++ together. While most of it was for Dr. appointments We did also have some fun times. We were blessed with meeting so many wonderful people at the Cancer Center in Ann Arbor! Oddly miss those trips. A trip to Stein Mart will NOT be the same,... I would find myself frequently asking people " I lost my mom, have you seen her?" You would wonder off and go chit chatting with strangers.

92 years! how wonderful! Thanks for the stories of your childhood, World War II, the Depression. You lead a very exciting life.

XO

“ She gave it her all, a strong confident woman who touched so many lives. (People and Fur babies). The world was a much better place with her in it. She will forever be missed. Just know we'll never forget you. This isn't a permanent goodbye. Until we meet again. Rest in peace Mrs J
