“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Dear Annie and Dave: I am SOOO sorry for your loss. I was in Texas when I learned about this and I just got back a couple hours ago. You know I would have been there if I was in town. My mom and dad loved her as much as they loved Johnny. My heart hurts for you, and it hurts for all of us because she was the last link to our old neighborhood. Now it will never be the same again. I love you both. VERY much....and I loved Nadine like a sister too. She was a STRONG woman and I admired her strength and love for her family. What a loss for all of us.

“ *I still am in shock. You will be greatly missed by all of us. I will never forget everything you have done for me. You came into my life when I was 10 and brought us back to our father. You were there for me so many times as a teenager, when my children were born and a huge part (of both) my weddings. I remember getting the best christmas presents and knowing you picked them out. I will never forget the time you took me to get my dress and hair done for homecoming, and all the times you made sure I had everything I needed for school. There is so much more and not enough space. I will never forget what you have meant to me and all I can do is to promise to you, to always be there for your boys. Rest in Peace. Love you -oh yeah and can't forget you and dad teaching me to cuss like a sailor :)
Love your daughter forever - Jen*
