“ I remember Nancy as a beautiful little girl cousin. Aunt Alice always called her "Dear One," which made her eyes light up even more. Janice (Brown) Havlena

“ Although I didn't know Nancy, I feel like I did know her through the stories her sister, Wendy would share with me! It made us smile each time! I know also, that Wendy & her sisters felt relieved knowing that their sister, Nancy, was so well taken care of and happy!

“ Aunt Wini remembers Nancy: She had such a sweet nature. You could tell. The last time I saw her was at the Barbara home. They took such good care of her there but it was Alice's loving care that gave her the best life. I remember Nancy sitting out on her blanket at Grass Lake when she was little. I'm so glad she had her sisters with her when she died.

Such a nice picture of a kind sweet spirited girl. Missed her mom, no doubt. May she rest in peace with Aunt Alice and Uncle Milner.
