“ Nancy was one of Antioch Corner’s children. We all attended Antioch church of Christ where a child or two was basically born from 1940 until at least 1955 (my memory). Most of us lived in the neighborhood and as we became older we were friends and would do things together. Nancy left Antioch Corner when she moved to Michigan closer to Mark’s family. We didn’t see much of her after that, but did think about her often and Charles would tell us what she was up to! I had the pleasure of seeing Nancy again about two years ago and she was the same Nancy. She had not gotten far from those West Kentucky roots. Rest in peace, Nancy. Precious memories flood my mind.

“ My heart is broken of hearing the passing of Nancy. She and I grew up together and she had a caring and thoughtful heart full of love. I went to high school with both Nancy and Mark. They were both fantastic individuals and my friends. I am keeping their children and their families in my heart. Nancy will be missed

“ Every memory of your sweet mother is just full of love, her beautiful smile, kindness & generosity. I’ll never forget when Andrea & Del married, we thought well here’s HIS new in-laws, but Pastor Moore & Mrs. Moore let us know right at the wedding that we ALL became a part of their family & I’ll never forget that. Just a beautiful, beautiful lady & family. Love you all! ❤️🙏 Philisa (Glaze) Harris “ Losing Nancy is such a heartbreaking loss. She was one of the kindest, most loving and giving people I've known. I'm so happy to have had Nancy and Mark in my life, they left a lasting impression on so many of us who loved them. Prayers for all family and friends who loved her. She will be missed.

“ I was sad to hear of Nancy's passing. So many memories of Mark and Nancy all the way back to their beginning. I had known Nancy and her family all my life, I guess. We were from the same small town in Kentucky. I met Mark when they moved down here. His sister, Kim was my best friend. We shared apartments together until she moved back to Michigan. We would stay with Mark and Nancy before we graduated, an apartment above a garage and their first home, maybe on Hillside Drive or Hilltop Drive, not sure. I loved this family like my own. Many years have past by but the memories never will. Until I get to see all of you again.... ❤️🙏
