“ We've lived on the same street as the Morencys for 32 years and have shared many of life's major events....babies, graduations, marriages, and, yes, unfortunately, deaths. Of course, Nancy's passing came much too soon for all of us! This is all in God's timing, though, which is perfect, and we can rejoice in the knowledge that Nancy is in His presence and that her faith has been made complete by sight. Her love for the Lord and her church were an encouragement to us and we always appreciated her positive attitude! Rest in His peace, dear neighbor, and blessings of sweet memories to her family and close friends.
Yet we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us....Romans 8:37

“ I thought we had more time, but God got another angel! Nancy, you will be missed beyond measure. Your strong sense of family and religion are the two most important gifts you taught your children. You were such a warm addition to the Morency family and Michael was lucky to call you his wife. We are all blessed for having you in our lives and your children will carry your legacy in their hearts.

“ Nancy was such a faith filled person, ready to share her faith with anyone who approached her. She seemed to always have a smile on her face and would say hi wherever you saw her. She is now with the Lord after all her years of being a faith filled servant and disciple. Rest in peace.
