“ It is still hard to believe! I have so many memories from camping at Warren Dunes, to swimming at Grandma's, many holidays and being the chauffeur at my wedding! As time passes and the shock wears off, I pray that the you are able to remember the fun and loving times! May the LORD bless you and keep you during this difficult time.

“ I wil always remember Neil's talk with me at my wedding about keeping my credit score good as I'm not the only Emily Kurth:) I always loved talking with him and enjoyed his kind and fun sarcasm. I am very sorry for your loss. He will be missed.

“ I knew Neil since we were 10 years old. He was the type of person that all the moms liked. I can't tell you how many times I heard "Why can't you be more like Neil?" When we were about 14 we took a weekend camping trip to Canada on our bicycles. Rode them across the Ambassador Bridge - try doing that today. We used to play baseball in his backyard and broke many a window on his house. He had a great sense of humor and it stayed with him throughout his life. He was a good person and will be sorely missed. Rest in peace my friend.
