“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Nellie will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Neliie again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Jakary family. Nellie was a special lady in my life, her special talents were a great source of inspiration to me. She was a joy to spend time with and in our community from St. Richards - God's Promise- we shared our love and our faith. I will pray for all of you and keep your mom in my heart forever. St. Richard's has been a parish of Faith and Friendship. Prayers for your dad too, Bruno was a joy. Love JoAnn

“ I am moved by the actions and attitude of Nellie's son, Ed, to express my condolences to the Jakary family. Ed Jakary consistently demonstrated a loving concern for his mother throughout her physical turmoil; an example of loving service to follow with my own mother. Ed's activities on behalf of his mother exemplified the Fourth Commandment: 'Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the Lord your God is giving you'.

“ There will never be anyone like Ma. All those kids and grandkids and they took me in anyway, with smiles. I used to take her and Pa magazines so they would have something to do to cut down on all those kids! It still cracks me up that she washed her hair in beer and set it with Jell-O. Only she would think of that! She said it kept her hair soft and no grey. She tried to teach me her business, but I was too sick from chemo myself, to master it. We were going to start the lessons again a few months ago, but she got sick. It just never worked out for us. I used to clean her house for her...all those kids and none of them seemed to clean much. Ma and Pa were the most loving couple I have ever met. I always envied them because it's something I never found. For having all those kids, she had the softest voice I've ever heard. Amazing. She was my Mom when I needed one the most. My life is twice blessed for having known and loved her, Pa, and the whole family. And, of course, my Merry. I'm here for you. All you have to do is call. And Eddie, I can never thank enough for always keeping me informed on what was going on with Ma. I love you all...

“ Dear Jakary Family, We mourn your loss with you. Auntie Nell was an amazing woman of strength, devotion, grace and gentle kindness. I have fond memories of going to your house in Michigan before we moved to California - there always seemed to be a new baby then at your place yet she welcomed all the kids in our family to amp up the noise. I'll never forget the fun times we had at your player piano. Love and prayers to you all. Cousin Sue (Podczerviensky)
