“ Nic was the most generous and kind person. He was dedicated and hard working. He always had a smile on his face and a funny story to share. I recently discovered he had blessed my family secretly many years ago after a devastating time in our lives. He never told me or even mentioned it to anyone else. So selfless and loving he always made sure everything was taken care of no matter how hard he had to work to make it happen. I will always cherish the memories and moments that I was blessed to have with him. He is not forgotten, and never will be. His huge heart and incredibly contagious laugh are loved and missed everyday.

“ God only creates a few special men with Nick's characteristics such as being genuinely honest, hard-working, fun-loving, optimistic, and infectious personality !!! Nick had more 5-star reviews than any other technicians in our company. Nick will be greatly missed by everyone at Levine and Sons, our customers, and his family. R.I.P. Till we meet again. Save a seat next to you in heaven for me.

“ Nick represented the best of us at Levine and Sons. Always a kind word and infectious smile when he was around. If you were having a bad day just a small conversation with him would make the day better. He is tremendously missed. Prayers for his children and loved ones.
