“ There is a reason it hurts so much to lose your Father, John. It's because he was such a good guy and good Dad. If he never had time for his 4 boys, it wouldn't be as hard to lose him. But, because you had so much during your lives, it makes his passing that much harder. Although it's not easy now, it indicates you had a great relationship.

“ The years have separated us as family . This happens as we age and our family’s grow. John and I shared many memories as we we were cousins growing up . In later years we would see each other in restaurants and would reminisce.
